

The World
Published by The World Publishing Company,
100 Nassau Street, New York.
TUESDAY EVENING, JAN. 24.

SUBSCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD
(Including Postage)
PER MONTH $3.00
PER YEAR $36.00
Vol. 38, No. 11,480

BRANCH OFFICES:
WORLD OFFICE: 100 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.
WORLD OFFICE: 100 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.
WORLD OFFICE: 100 NASSAU STREET, NEW YORK.

1892-All Records Beaten-1892

139,262,685
WORLDS were printed and circulated in 1892

This is a gain over 1891 of 23,724,860.

The average per day in '92 was 380,499.

A gain per day over 1891 of 63,958.

In 1892 THE WORLD printed
890,975 Advs.

A gain over 1891 of
107,369 Advs.

THESE GREAT TOTALS WERE NEVER BEFORE EQUALLED BY ANY PAPER PRINTED IN THE ENGLISH LANGUAGE.

THE WORLD will not, under any circumstances, be responsible for the contents of any advertisement or for the results of any action taken thereon. It is not responsible for the contents of any advertisement or for the results of any action taken thereon.

THE EVENING WORLD'S
Net paid bona fide actual daily
Average Circulation is greater than the combined circulation of the Evening Sun,

(Mail and Express,
Evening Post,
Commercial Advertiser,
Evening Telegram.

Give us rapid transit, or give us something more like it than anything we've got.

The young Khedive proves a very frictions colt in the Egyptian pasture.

The fact that eggs are going down will induce the thrifty housekeeper to look up.

And to-day Justice Laman's name is on the death-roll. The reaper is making a wide swath these times.

Paris also had a show yesterday. With a common meeting up and a common interest in the Panama scandal surely developing, France and America may meet in common mind all around.

A little too much snoring and showing of teeth at Albany last night. If the Constitutional Convention must be so straightforward out as speedily as it ought, there'll have to be a vigorous use of the snore stick.

Stamboul's record of 2,977, is reported by the American Trotting Register Association. But the fact that the notable trotter trotted in that time can't be rejected. Kremlin will occupy only a technical ship.

The annual police banquet proved, as usual, a thorough success. And the beauty of the case is that the officers of "the finest" are hospitable and kind to their friends. Not a day passes but some stranger is taken in.

With an assurance almost sublime, Austria asks the authorities at Pittsburgh to suppress a paper printed in the Hungarian language which has been criticizing the Government at Vienna. FRANCIS JOSEPH will have to understand that the press is not regulated that way over here.

Baltimore has been studying New York's street-cleaning system. She might have taken a better time of year. And she might have waited until common sense and common decency had led to the adoption of some plan for disposing of the city's refuse, so that the Street-Cleaning Department wouldn't have been carrying the overload which has embarrassed it for a fortnight and more.

In view of Justice Laman's sudden removal a new and pathetic interest attaches to Senator Teller's words, spoken only yesterday.

Said the Senator, speaking of Supreme Court affairs: "We will, by special act, doubtless retire Justice Laman early in the next session of Congress. Everybody knows that Justice Laman is incapacitated by ill health. He has reached the age for retirement, but has not been in the service ten years, as required by law. Laman is old and poor, and we are going to pension him by retiring him by special act of Congress." Death's special act has now taken precedence.

THE QUARANTINE BILL.
The House Quarantine bill was passed yesterday by a vote of 135 yeas to 29 nays. Just what the law provides and in what respect it differs from the Senate measure it is impossible to say until the text of the bill is published. So many amendments were proposed, some of which failed while others were successful, that the bill passed is not the bill reported by the Committee.

As the bill now goes to the Senate as a new measure, it will take its place at the bottom of the Senate calendar. The Senate bill is now at the bottom of the House calendar. Hence it is doubtful if either will become a law before the expiration of the present Congress. The many Representatives will do their utmost to defeat any bill unless its provisions are made to suit their views and wishes, which are, of course, that quarantine matters in this city shall be left under supreme control of the State authorities, while any interference on the part of the Federal Government must be only at the request and with concurrence of the Health Officer and the other State officials.

It now seems likely that we shall be left, as we were last Summer, with only our State quarantine regulations to rely upon at this point. In view of the great probability of a new outbreak of cholera in Europe and of the travel to the World's Fair, this is a very serious matter to contemplate. It certainly will be necessary for the Legislature to take some action to improve the methods of our State quarantine.

A WELCOME IMPROVEMENT.
Public Works Commissioner DAILY was yesterday given $1,500,000 by the Board of Estimate and Apportionment for street paving. Of this amount $1,243,870 is to be used forthwith on certain specified streets, a little more than one half of which is to be expended on asphalt pavements.

This seems a large amount of money, but it must be remembered that up to two years ago the street pavements were in an abominable and scandalous condition. Within two years they have been very greatly improved, and it is believed that in two or three years more we shall have one of the best paved cities in the world.

Money expended on such a desirable public improvement is well spent if it is honestly spent. Mayor Grinnow fulfilled public expectation during his term of office as Public Works Commissioner. His work was well done, and no charge was ever made that it was not honestly done. He chose for his successor a man in whose capacity and integrity he has full confidence, and he naturally desires to see the work he began so well completed to the satisfaction of the people. There is every reason to expect that the work will be well done by the new Commissioner.

WE CAN'T OBLIGE HIM.
Commend us to the Austrian Government. With assurances of our highest esteem and regard, we beg to subscribe ourselves its most obedient, humble servant. But we regret exceedingly that it is not in the power of this Government to gratify the modest request of the Royal House of Habsburg-Lorraine to suppress the publication of a humble little Hungarian weekly paper published at Pittsburgh, in the State of Pennsylvania, United States of America. We deeply regret that the paper should have found its way into Austria and caused some trouble in the Emperor's dominions. But his request, presented through the Austrian Consul, that the American Slavenski Noviny be uprooted and wiped from the face of the American Republic is sorrowfully refused.

The Emperor of Austria, King Apostolic of Hungary, King of Bohemia, of Dalmatia, of Croatia, of Slavonia, of Galizia, King of Jerusalem, Archduke of Austria, Grand Duke of Tuscany, Duke of Lorraine, Grand Prince of Transylvania, Margrave of Moravia, &c., is a great ruler and can do as he pleases with his own people in his own dominions. He can stop the circulation of an offensive journal at his will. But here it is different. The press does pretty much as it pleases. It is free to express its opinions, and no one dares to dispute its liberty. There are some newspapers that could be very well spared, but they are left to do a national drain, and are not "suppressed" for political reasons.

So our Government is compelled to refuse compliance with the Emperor's request. Anything else we can do for FRANCIS JOSEPH shall be done with pleasure.

THE BANQUET OF "THE FINEST."
The "Finest" had the finest kind of last night at their annual banquet at Delmonico's. The menu was as the region's finds except at New York's famous caterers and the guests dispersed it.

Royal Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure
A cream of tartar baking powder. Highest of all in leavening strength. Latest United States Government Food Report. ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., 100 WALL ST., N. Y.

as readily as they would have dispersed a crowd of rioters.
There was McLaughlin soup, and Williams and Conklin broils, and Byrnes strabuts, and Melvay roasts, and full justice was done to all.
The great dish of the evening, however, the place of residence, which most delighted everybody at the festive board, was the speech of ELEANORE DUSE, an invited and honored guest. When the philanthropist whose work draws him into constant contact with the police and who has as good opportunity as any citizen in New York to prove the efficiency, honesty and fidelity of the force, indorsed it in eulogistic words all the attacks of PARKER and other blundering critics were forgotten.

"There is an inherent vice which I hope will be stamped out," said Mr. Grinnow. "It is the vice of speaking ill of those who are in office." There is a volume of sound sense in this remark. Fair and honest criticism, as Commodore Grinnow said, is not only beneficial to the public service, but will be acceptable to any official who is anxious to do his duty. But criticism incited by prejudice and attacks not justified by facts do harm instead of good and injure rather than benefit the public cause.

The banquet was a great success, and will, it is to be hoped, inspire the force with renewed determination to add to the extent of its power to making New York the model city of the world in good order and in safety to life and property.

INVESTIGATING.
The State Legislature had its investigating cap on yesterday. Resolutions were adopted to investigate the expenditures of the World's Fair Commission, which now asks for an appropriation of another three hundred thousand dollars for expenses. A resolution to investigate the Rapid Transit Commission was referred to the Committee of Ways and Means.

It would do no harm to inquire closely into the expenditures of all World's Fair commissions. It is in the preliminary work of such enterprises that the leakages occur. Several matters have come to the surface which create the suspicion that considerable jobbing is going on among those who are active in the management of the introductory work. At all events investigation can do no harm and may be productive of good.

As the rapid transit surrender to the Manhattan Elevated corporation, there is something to be said for the operation that might astonish the people if it should be exposed. But the most important work in connection with rapid transit just now is to take care that the law is not exceeded in the vast new privileges proposed to be granted to the Elevated corporation, and that for all the advantages bestowed on Manhattan the city gets a full and fair compensation.

The National Quarantine bill passed by the House yesterday, since it leaves scope for a State system independent of the National, makes room for an extravagant arrangement of wheels within wheels. But even in this form it is an advance on the present state of things, since, once in force, it will make sure that precautions at New York or any other well-guarded point of entry to the country will not be thrown away because of lack of guards somewhere else.

Lieut. Torker has retired from the army. He will find more time now for his cheerful diversion of fixing new dates for the end of all things.

A Sure Sign.
(From Post.)
He is sure that Ferguson is in love. She says: "He is." I frequently see him go into a bar and buy a solitary drink.

SKIN TORTURES

Whether itching, burning, bleeding, scaly, crusted, pimply, or blotchy, whether of the skin, scalp or blood, whether simple, scrofulous, hereditary, ulcerative or contagious, are now speedily, permanently and economically cured by the Cuticura Remedies when the best physicians and all other remedies fail. The most miraculous cures daily effected by them prove this. No statement is made regarding them not warranted by the strongest evidence. They are absolutely pure, and agreeable to the most refined and sensitive. They may be used on the youngest infant and most delicate invalid with gratifying and unflinching success. They have friends in every quarter of the civilized world. People in every walk of life believe in them, use them and recommend them. In a word they are the greatest skin cures, blood purifiers and humor remedies of modern times. Sale greater than the combined sales of all other blood and skin remedies. Sold throughout the world.

Prominent Physicians assure CASWELL, MASSEY & CO. that in numerous cases patients have been able to take and retain their "Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil, with Pepsin and Quinine," although nearly unable to take any other Emulsion or plain Cod Liver Oil. Caswell, Massey & Co.'s Emulsion is the most nourishing and strengthening. Sold by all Druggists. 112 Broadway, 215 5th Ave., and New York.

ELEANORE DUSE.
The unexpected has happened, and the theatrical fairer has not failed. Grave suspicions of a lady who had been so publicly that she could not possibly bear to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not. As for the theatrical fairer, she was not to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not.

The unexpected has happened, and the theatrical fairer has not failed. Grave suspicions of a lady who had been so publicly that she could not possibly bear to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not. As for the theatrical fairer, she was not to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not.

The unexpected has happened, and the theatrical fairer has not failed. Grave suspicions of a lady who had been so publicly that she could not possibly bear to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not. As for the theatrical fairer, she was not to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not.

The unexpected has happened, and the theatrical fairer has not failed. Grave suspicions of a lady who had been so publicly that she could not possibly bear to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not. As for the theatrical fairer, she was not to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not.

The unexpected has happened, and the theatrical fairer has not failed. Grave suspicions of a lady who had been so publicly that she could not possibly bear to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not. As for the theatrical fairer, she was not to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not.

The unexpected has happened, and the theatrical fairer has not failed. Grave suspicions of a lady who had been so publicly that she could not possibly bear to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not. As for the theatrical fairer, she was not to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not.

The unexpected has happened, and the theatrical fairer has not failed. Grave suspicions of a lady who had been so publicly that she could not possibly bear to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not. As for the theatrical fairer, she was not to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not.

The unexpected has happened, and the theatrical fairer has not failed. Grave suspicions of a lady who had been so publicly that she could not possibly bear to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not. As for the theatrical fairer, she was not to be seen in the New York. There was a feeling of black interest in her address, and positively revolved against seeing whether she liked New York much more than she did not.

HOUSE AND HOME
The Paris Theatre Hat.
This is the hat that is now popular with Paris theatre-goers. It is small and pretty, and the front trimming does not cut off much of the view of the person sitting behind its wearer.

The crown is in metallic embroidery, sprinkled with multi-colored jet studs, and decorated in front with an Alsatian bow in dark blue velvet, edged with gold stripes agrette in the centre of the bow, composed of feather and gem antennae.

Don't.
Don't bring your troubles to the table, or allow yourself to think or speak of domestic cares during dinner. Half of the nostrums for the cure of dyspepsia, headache and neuralgia would disappear from the market if this rule were followed. Silence and stillness on the one hand, querulous fault-finding and snarling on the other, are bad aids to digestion and convert a feast into a fruitless breeder of disease. Those who have read "Mother's Table Talk" and other works of the kind may realize how greatly agreeable an intellectual conversation can be made to conduce to physical benefit, and how a ready reply or happy repartee may convert a meal into a "feast of reason" as well as a moral agency for permanent mental and physical improvement. Try it.

An Oyster Feat.
A novel apparatus for frying oysters consists of two perforated sheet metal plates, with depressions to correspond to the shape of the oyster, the portions of the sheets between the moulds fitting against each other.

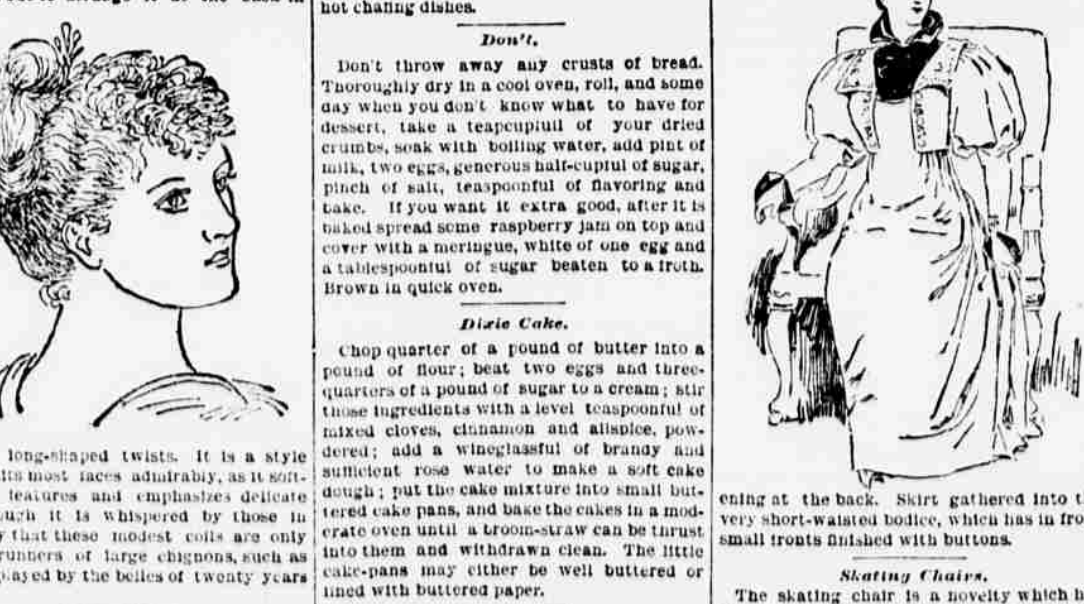

A Glove Tidy.
A useful article to possess is a glove tidy. It is made of linen, after the manner of an ordinary "housewife," and contains casings to hold skeins of silk of various colors, and is fitted up with glove stretchers, button hook and scissors, as well as leaves of flannel for needles, and pockets for buttons, &c. The outside of the "tidy" can be embroidered according to taste. A motto, such as "A stitch in time saves nine," offers pretty ornamentation and is in keeping with the prevailing fancy for inscribing everything with some ancient saying.

An Empress's Memoirs.
The Empress Eugenie devotes two or three hours of each day to writing her memoirs, but so sensitive is she about her work that she allows no one to look at her manuscript, and has made special arrangements that her sheets shall not be published until she has been dead twenty-five years.

Don't.
Don't sweep, or allow your domestic to, with the broom in front of you, as though you were shovelling the carpet. As sure as you do the dirt from the carpet and shove it up in the dustpan. More carpets are worn out by hard sweeping than by regular "wear and tear." Sweep with a downward, regular stroke, keeping the dust under the broom. Wring out a house-cloth or mop in soda water and wipe over your carpet after the dust has settled, and see how clean and bright it will look.

How to Arrange the Hair.
The latter part of winter has brought quite a revolution in hair-dressing. The accompanying sketch shows in a general way the trend of the new style, which is to no longer pile the hair in curls and puffs on the top of the head, but to arrange it at the back in graceful long-swept twists. It is a style which suits most faces admirably, as it softens hard features and emphasizes delicate ones, though it is whispered by those in authority that these modest coils are only for the "fashionable" and are destined to be displaced by the bellies of twenty years ago.

Nutrient in Eggs.
Six large eggs will weigh about a pound. As a flesh producer one pound of eggs is equal to one pound of beef. About one-third of the weight of an egg is solid nutriment, which is more than can be said of meat. There are no bones and tough pieces that have to be laid aside. Practically an egg is animal food, and yet there is none of the disagreeable work of the butcher necessary to obtain it. Eggs at average prices are among the cheapest and most nutritious articles of diet. Like milk, an egg is complete food in itself, containing everything necessary for the development of a perfect animal. It is also easily digested, if not damaged in cooking. Indeed, there is no

Some Beautiful Women.
The portraits of beauties of the time of Washington's inauguration show the highest feminine charms of wit, feeling, heart and mind in faces which wore their bloom staunchly up to fifty.
Mrs. Jay, daughter of Rufus King, with her black hair and brilliant blue eyes; Mrs. Bayard, whose pictured face it is impossible to see and not to love; the faithful, frank wife of Alexander Hamilton, who could have kept her brilliant husband from his errand ways had she been more of a woman and less of a model. Many will recall Mme. Rudersdorf, the singer, when over forty, beautiful as an image

THE GREAT STRAINS OF MODERN TIMES.
NEUROUS DISEASES ARE WRECKING THOUSANDS OF OUR HOMES.

To the overworked, tired, run down, those whose bodies and brains have been overtaxed, or those who are suffering from nervous exhaustion from any source, Munson's Homoeopathic Tonic is a tonic.

Probably no remedy of the present day is accomplishing the same amount of good as is this truly wonderful nerve restorer. Thousands of bottles have been sold in all parts of the country within the past two years, and it is rapidly going to the front as the most successful remedy for nervous disease of the age. It builds up the entire system, creating a good appetite, restores sleep, enriches the blood, aids digestion, thereby creating a healthy action of the body and nerve centres. Every bottle is sold under a guarantee to do just what is claimed for it, or money refunded. A single bottle will convince you of its merits. Price $1. Sent prepaid to any address upon receipt of price.

If you prefer, you can order it of your druggist; if he has not got it, he will get it for you. MUNSON'S HOMOEOPATHIC FAMILY MEDICINE COMPANY, 40 West 14th Street, have been for over a year offering unusual facilities to those in need of skilled medical advice. Experienced physicians and well-qualified homoeopathic specialists can do for you. Comfortable reception rooms have been provided, and courteous treatment awaits you. There will be no obligation to purchase medicines of any kind unless you wish.

"THE FAMILY DOCTOR," mailed free to any address by simply dropping in a postal card.
MUNSON'S
HOMOEOPATHIC FAMILY MEDICINE CO.
46 West 14th St.
(Near Macy's).

CAUTION.
Beware of imitations. Notice the name MUNSON'S is spelled with the letter S. See that our trade mark is on every bottle. NONE ARE GENUINE WITHOUT IT.

SCISSORINGS.
Where He Was Hit.
(From the Minneapolis Journal.)
Whitlaw Reid has a severe throat trouble. We were laboring under the impression that it was the neck. See files of November last.

The War Will Be Right in It.
(From the Chicago Post.)
California's World's Fair badge shows a golden bear walking a horizontal bar. The animal will find plenty of horizontal bars to walk over when the Fair is closed on Sundays. The saloons will all be open.

Matters of Moderation.
(From the New York City Star.)
The man of moderate means is usually better off than the moderate man of means.
But This Story is Thin Enough.
It never rains but it pours. The Detroit men are all torn up because the ice is so thick they can't harvest it.

Legislative Avian in Kansas.
(From the Kansas City Star.)
The Great Reed quorum-counting birds have returned to roost in the Republican nest in Kansas. In connection with this matter it may be mentioned that all other kinds of legislative precedent birds are roosting there also.

A Premature Oracle.
(From the Atlanta Journal.)
The next President must not come from New York. This speaks the oracle, alias Col. Henry Watterson, of Kentucky. * * * New York is a great State and contains some mighty big Democrats. We confess that we are unable to comprehend why New York should be barred three years and a half before the time for selecting Presidential candidates.

Hollowness of Texas Vanity.
(From the Philadelphia Times.)
Texas prides herself upon having fifty-seven counties, each of which is larger than the State of Rhode Island. Well, what of that? Are there any of them which can get up a Rhode Island clique?

Used Him Up.
(From Judge.)
Passenger-What's the matter, conductor? Why doesn't the train start?
Conductor-I am afraid you may have to wait for several hours yet. We've got to telegraph back for another engineer.
Passenger-Why, what's the matter with the engineer?
Conductor-The train boy gave him a cigar at the last station.

A perfect food is that which comprises all the elements of the body, which are needed to support its chemical changes.

H-O Hornby's Oatmeal is the one clear, clean, perfect food. That is the whole fact.